Aeon Delivers Emergency Disaster Relief Funds to Support Regions Affected by the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake

Aeon extends its heartfelt sympathies to all those affected by the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake.

Aeon has delivered a total of 333,449,314 yen in emergency relief funds to Kumamoto and Oita Prefectures, including donations collected from customers from April 25 to June 22. Aeon is deeply grateful for the warm support of everyone throughout Japan who donated to its campaigns.

On July 8, representatives of local Aeon Group companies operating in the region visited the Prefectural Government Offices of Kumamoto and Oita respectively to present the donations. Kumamoto Prefecture Vice Governor Taisuke Ono and Oita Prefecture Governor Katsusada Hirose pledged to deliver customers' goodwill to those affected by the earthquake and ensure the donations are used effectively in supporting the region's recovery and reconstruction.

Aeon continues to support earthquake-stricken communities through various initiatives in the hope that the residents can resume their normal daily lives as soon as possible.

Donations:

Emergency relief donations (second campaign):	260,064,679 yen
WAON point donations:	4,686,100 yen
Donations to Aeon Yellow Receipt Campaign to Aid Kumamoto and Oita:	68,698,535 yen
Total:	333,449,314 yen

*Including donations combined with the funds from Aeon previously presented on May 3 (first campaign), total donations amount to 609,518,954 yen.
